DOTHAN'S POPULATION: 1900, 247; 1905, 347; 1910, 7,416; 1920, 20,000. "FOR I HEARD THEM SAY LET US GO TO DOTHAN."

DOTHAN, ALABAMA THURSDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 9, 1914

WEATHER
Forecast for Thursday, April 9, 1914. Heavy rain in south portion tonight. Friday and Saturday fair and clear.

OAKLEY CASE WENT TO JURY AT 1:30

(Special to The Eagle.)
Columbiana, Ala., April 9.—The entire morning session of the Oakley trial was taken up with the efforts of the defense to get into the record that Oakley gave Lacy $27,500 and Oakley thought he was using his own money. It was intimated that the defense will seek to have the indictment quashed on the ground that no offense was committed in this county.

Later.
Judge Alston refused to admit evidence on $27,500 transaction and the case went to the jury at 1:30, court delivering the affirmative charge.

SENATE IN BATTLE OVER FREE TOLLS

(Special to The Eagle.)
Washington, April 9.—The senate battle over free tolls repeat began today when the Canals Committee began hearing Senators who have introduced substitutes or amendments for the Sims bill.

While committee held hearings Lodge was ready to open formal debate on the Senate floor. Witnesses from distant parts of the country will be heard as fast as they arrive and committee hearings will last fifteen days or longer.

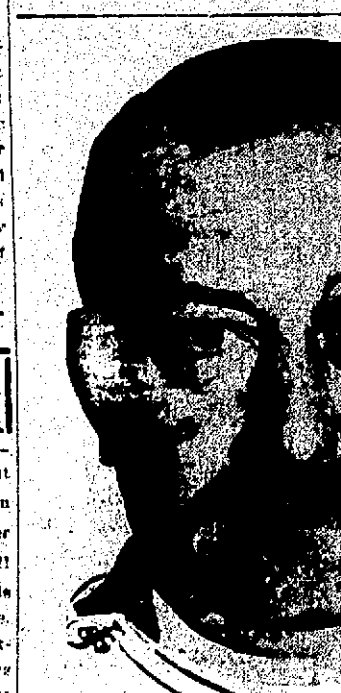

In his speech Senator Lodge declared he would support President Wilson's anti-free tolls policy but because free tolls was an economic blunder, he asserted the matter would have no effect on railroad rates, or cost of living. Lodge's speech was the first of a series by Republican senators in support of the administration.

THIRD DEATH MAY MARK TRAGEDY OF STOLEN PURSE

Dothan Men End Rise Winburn's Promotion

The Dothan friends of J. A. Winburn, who has been selected president of the Central of Georgia railway, will be pleased to hear of his promotion. Mr. Winburn was formerly Vice President of the Central of Georgia railway.

Along with other well known railroad men, Mr. Winburn stopped over in Dothan a few weeks ago, and met a number of leading business men and members of the Chamber of Commerce.

Light Trouble Fixed; Will Shine Tonight

Caused by an arc light falling and knocking a cut-out from a pole, the northwestern part of the city was in darkness last night.

Superintendent Curtwright was notified, and worked, until a late hour, with his assistants, looking for the trouble. He says everything was adjusted, and that the lights will shine all night tonight.

ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE FAILS

There was an attempt on the part of some of the prisoners in the county jail to escape last night, but they were unsuccessful, according to information from Sheriff Hay's office.

Men From North All Like Dothan

Several well known men from the north have been in Dothan recently and from all accounts are greatly impressed with the opportunities offered in this section of the State.

Among the visitors were Albert Lucas, of Indianapolis, Indiana, who was here yesterday prospecting, and A. C. Lide, of Darlington, South Carolina, who has real estate interests near Cairo, Georgia. It is understood these gentlemen as well as others were greatly pleased with Dothan and Southeast Alabama.

Lieutenant Detective George Hearle (left) who shot dead Wm. Horgan (below) in a battle in the dark after Horgan had killed Detective Joseph Guarneri (top) when the two police officers entered a tenement to arrest Horgan for shooting a witness against his son, "Puggy."

New York, April 8.—That Charles Moses will be the third man to die as a result of the shooting affray that grew out of the stealing of a pocketbook by 15-year-old "Puggy" Horgan is the fear that has assailed the physicians who are attending him. The tragedy is the most remarkable record in police chronicles since the Rosenthal murder. "Puggy" snatched a pocketbook from a woman pedestrian. Moses saw the theft and informed the police. Puggy was arrested and Moses was warned not to appear against him. He laughed at the threats, however, and his testimony resulted in the youngster's indictment on Thursday. Thursday night Moses was called to the street by William Horgan, Puggy's father, who reviled him for testifying against his son and then shot him in the breast. Moses succeeded in staggering to the 104 Street police station and telling who shot him before he lost consciousness. Four detectives were assigned to catch Horgan. They followed a trail that led to the rooms of Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald on the top floor of an East Side flat. One detective was assigned to guard the street entrance to the building, another went to the roof and Detectives Guarneri and Hearle broke into the apartment. The Fitzgeralds denied they were hiding anybody. The detectives began a search of the darkened rooms. As they were about to step into the parlor there was a crash of a revolver and Guarneri who was leading fell dead. Hearle returned the fire instantly and shot, aimed into the darkness, found their man with deadly effect. Horgan died instantly.

WOULD STAY EXECUTION OF FOUR GUNMEN

(Special to The Eagle.)
New York, April 9.—Franklin relatives of the four gunmen, doomed to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing Monday for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, besieged Attorney Wahl's office today, begging the lawyer to save his clients. Wahl is refused to hold out hope, but it was known he had two eleventh hour steps under consideration to stay execution. One is an appeal to the United States Supreme Court on the ground that the men were denied rights as citizens. The other is an appeal on the ground that new evidence has been discovered. This will be based on an affidavit tending to prove an alibi for Dago Frank.

Wahl said later he would not appeal to the Supreme Court. Final effort will be made to secure a writ from the Governor. This will be the last effort to save the doomed men.

10,000 VISITORS IN BIRMINGHAM; 4,000 TEACHERS

(Special to The Eagle.)
Birmingham, Apr. 9.—Ten thousand visitors, nearly four thousand of them teachers, are in Birmingham to attend the 32d annual convention of the Alabama Teachers Association which convened at 3:00 o'clock this afternoon for three days session.

The meeting was called to order in the High School by President J. V. Brown, of Dothan, who introduced Commissioner Weatherly. Mr. Weatherly delivered the address of welcome, which was responded to by Prof. E. N. Shackleford, of Troy. President Brown's annual address then closed the afternoon session.

Teachers are being shown much attention and many excursions about the city are enjoyed by them. Much good is predicted from the meeting.

City Hall Plans Daily Expected

Plans for the new city hall, to be prepared by Architect Morris of Atlanta, are expected daily at the city hall, according to City Clerk H. W. Lisenby.

Mr. Morris was here a few weeks ago, at which time he conferred with members of the city council. It is said, The plans for the new municipal building will be modern in every respect. It is thought.

FEDERAL TROOPS DRIVEN BACK BY THE REBELS

(Special to The Eagle.)
Mexico City, April 9.—Federal troops defending Tampico have been driven back into the center of the city by rebels, according to advices received today, and the fall of the city is imminent. Scores of foreigners have taken refuge on American and other foreign warships in the harbor. The northwestern section of the city is on fire.

It is reported that Admiral Mayo, commanding the American warships notified commanders that the first danger to foreigners would be a signal for loading American warships. Admiral Mayo and English Commander Cranbrook held a long conference and Mayo later wired Viceroy Carr asking that the steamer Moro Castle be sent to take refugees on board.

Will Improve the Campbellton Road

The county board was passed through Dothan today enroute for the country, where work will be started on the road that leads to Campbellton, Fla.

For the past few weeks the road crew has been working on the Headland road, north of the city, making many needed improvements under the direction of Governor McEachie.

Birmingham, April 9.—Police are looking for W. H. Brown, alleged to be the slighest swindler with whom the police have had to deal. Brown opened elaborate offices in a downtown skyscraper, then issued numerous checks to fictitious employees, signed by the "Atlantic Coast Railway and Construction Company," then took checks to merchants, made small purchases and got the balance in cash. The checks were in the City Bank of Anniston. Brown got over $1,000 and shipped.

Senator Norris appeared before the committee in favor of his amendment to the repeal bill which provides that in repealing free coin the United States does not surrender rights on the coast. Norris said he favored denaturalization in favor of all American shipping. It says it to be made.

CONSIDER THE MUSIC MAKERS

What is more entertaining to music lovers than a music concert? Dothan music lovers will have an opportunity of hearing the best one on the American platform when the Music Makers come to the High School next Saturday night. In addition to the talented vocalists and quartets, the Music Makers carry a large orchestra and people in all parts of the country have shown great curiosity as to the boys, whom, where and when of this peculiar instrument. In nearly every town a music festival around the platform in the case of the student's commitment, and the boys expect the success of the Music Makers.

GET TO THE REAL BUSINESS-CUT POLITICS

It is time for this county to get politics behind it now and get to business. There isn't a living in politics, except for but few.

The masses are supported by the farmers of this country. They are the people we must deal with and take into our confidence.

The city of Dothan has a live Chamber of Commerce. It was organized primarily for Dothan, and the business people of Dothan. But like all other organizations in this section, it cannot succeed without the farmer.

There would be no stores to rent, no houses to build, no customers for goods, if we haven't a progressive farming community surrounding Dothan. Dothan isn't like some other cities. It cannot live from any other business. This is a distinct farming section. It will always be a farming section. Then there is no use of trying to make money from something else. The farmers are the real backbone of the country, but they are the backbone and frame of the country, down in Alabama.

Well, the Chamber of Commerce for Dothan would be like having a lot of port laws on the town's book, without a port. We would make a miserable failure as a commercial organization without taking the farmer in with us. We have arranged to do that. We are organizing the county, in a sort of a co-operative movement, and will try to get the farmer to diversify. We will try to get him to raise more hogs, for they are easy to raise, and it doesn't require a teacher. Our people know the hog business.

The most important thing to do just now is this—Get the bankers and leading business men of Dothan, to go out among the farmers of the county, and talk the situation over with them face to face. The bankers will tell you now, that by next year, they will begin to draw in loans, and curtail risks of all kinds. They will loan less money because being loaned business men, they know the hog business is coming, and that diversification will be with us for two or three years. They don't want to be caught napping. They will not be. Then the thing to do is for the banker to go direct to the farmer, and tell him that he must change his method of farming, just a little. The farmer will listen to the banker, and his merchant. He knows they don't become alarmed without something behind it.

Take such men as Jim Young, John Sanders, J. H. Faircloth, G. H. Malone, and let them take the initiative. They deal with the people direct, and are known in a business way. Their advice would be taken, when the Chamber of Commerce working direct, wouldn't be considered. It is the duty of these men to get interested. And they are, but they should get the farmer interested. They should go to the farmer and insist that he begin now to diversify. They should insist that more hogs be raised. Hogs will bring 8 1-2 per cent per pound on foot in Dothan. Dothan has no packing plant, and may not have in some time, but there is one, near by, at Monticello, Ga., where a good market can be easily reached all the year round. To raise hogs now, is to risk. The market is already here. Buyers will come and pay for them right here.

But unless the banker, who has to advance money to the farmer some times, goes direct to him now, and advise him to do this before the boll weevil begins to cut into his income, the farmer isn't so liable to take matters seriously. The farmer must work in conjunction with the banker. What's one's success is the other's success. What's one's failure, is the other's failure.

We say it is time now to forget politics for a little while and take to the country to go to work with the farmer, and plan a way to overcome the bad effects the boll weevil will have. The way not to feel the boll weevil, is to be ready before he comes. If the county is full of fat hogs, we will be ready when trouble comes. Hogs, not cotton, never looks for a market.

IT MEANS COMER.

There isn't a shadow of a doubt but that the returns show Comer will have a safe majority over Henderson. When the final votes go to Comer, and most of the people admit that he will get the greater per centage of them, and about twenty per cent of Kelly's, or probably more, it will make him an easy winner over Henderson.

This campaign is to be short, but it will be a hot one. The woods will be full of paid speakers, but they can't get the tide turned. The people of Alabama know Comer, and know that a strong and tried man is needed at the helm of the state. He has thousands of enemies, who would rather see him mowed under than any other man; but there is no sufficient number of those to produce the snow.

Comer has means. He does things even though they don't always please everybody. He does what he thinks is right, and the present administration hasn't seen fit to make a single law that Comer's administration put on the books.

The rainy part of it is the short memory of the people. He has been named from one end of the state to the other about the back tax law. The majority of the white-haired, and there are many, think Comer passed the back tax law. That was in operation in 1902, and Comer became Governor in 1907. And yet, they charge it up to him along with many other foolish things.

Watch the prediction: He will be re-elected governor.

CLAY HILLBIDE IN FLORIDA.

Whoever heard of Florida having a "clay hillbide?"

The Pensacola Journal publishes an article in which it says: "There isn't an old, clay hillbide in West Florida that could not be made to produce an fine peanuts as can be raised on the face of the earth—any kind, or size."

That's news to us. We have been living within twenty miles of Florida for a long time, and we have never heard of a Florida clay hillbide.

It is reported that there is some sand in fact enough sand down there for all practical purposes, and probably the sand will grow peanuts, but if they get clay down there to daub a stick and dirt chimney they have to haul it from Alabama. Well, of course, up in north Florida, in one or two counties, you might find just a little clay, but it would be too pale to use in growing peobers.

And it's a bad idea to pick up a bankrupt candidate, and back him in a campaign because you think you can collect your money out of him when he elected. The answer was, when such a man is elected, he looks that he did it all by himself.

WARNING AGAINST MEDICAL CAREER.

A most unusual action was taken recently by the medical faculty of the Vienna University to stop the constantly increasing influx of students to the medical curriculum.

This term 640 new students have taken up the study of medicine in Vienna only, the figure beating the record. The senate of the medical faculty has now issued an official warning, addressed to the parents, the teachers and the directors of schools of children between the ages of 16 and 20 years, in which it is pointed out that the medical schools of the seven Austrian universities are overcrowded with students and that the medical profession is already now more than sufficiently supplied with new doctors for the next six years, when those entering the career this year will get their diploma of M. D. The financial outlook of the doctors is becoming constantly worse, as a large part of the population are at present obliged to enter the sick clubs and still larger numbers will be removed from the field of the private practitioner when the new national sickness insurance bill becomes a law. At the same time the number of doctors increase proportionately faster than the population (8 per cent. against 1.5 per cent.) and the university facilities—dissecting-rooms, lecture halls, and internships in hospitals—are absolutely inadequate to suffice for the numbers applying to work there. The addition last year of two new dissecting halls to the Vienna Anatomical Institute has already become inadequate owing to the sudden increase of first year students; so that the old complaints are again raised, and in the physiologic and chemical institutes the students have to wait for days or weeks before they get their turn to work for half a day or so, apart from the difficulties of obtaining a working place in outpatient departments or wards. The warning goes on to say that if nevertheless the increase of students should continue, the medical faculty would be obliged to consider the institution of a number of clauses by which only those students who come from Vienna and lower Austria would be eligible in the first line, and those coming from other districts and from foreign countries would run the risk of non-admission. Of course, this does not apply to postgraduate work, although such a step would be a distinct departure from the idea of "liberty of teaching and learning," and necessarily would be stronger than academic considerations of breach of custom. This action, says the Vienna correspondent of The Journal of the American Medical Association, has caused considerable excitement among the circles affected, and it is supported by the profession as well as by the teaching staff of our universities, as it attacks the evil at its root and gives a way to remedy it. The warning is commented on also in the lay press and in the papers devoted to the interests of schools and teachers, wherein its importance is duly pointed out.

ANOTHER PAPER IN MOUNING.

The Mobile Evening Post got out an issue the other day, and then quit. In the way of showing how bad it felt over being unable to make a second evening paper go in Mobile, the paper turned the column rules over, and ran the front page in mourning. It found out, after six months, there was no room in the city of Mobile, for another paper. Well, it ought to have known ahead of time, but didn't like, many others, who see the need of one more. Now, take Montgomery, it is city enough to keep two afternoon papers going. However, one or two has failed there in the past, but it looks now like the two running there are doing well, and will continue.

Late returns would indicate that Sir John H. Wallace, Jr., got out of the way just in time. Well, he probably had a month or two to the good.

Many people can go ahead at this late date, and make a pretty fair crop, with seasons. And the seasons, down here in Alabama are always what you might expect of them.

Daniel Webster was once sued by his butcher for a bill of long standing, says the New York Globe. Before the suit was settled he met the butcher on the street and to the man's great embarrassment stopped to ask why he had ceased sending around for his order.

"Why, Mr. Webster," said the tradesman, "I did not think you would want to deal with me when I brought suit against you."

"Tut, tut!" said Webster. "See me all you wish, but for heaven's sake don't try to slay me to death."

A VALENTINE

A valentine to you, my dear,
Meant only for your eyes;
A message I embody here
That each may find who tries.

Do you remember those dear days
When we were free from care
And wandered far through winding ways
And practiced spooning there?

To you, fair Maude, and you, Marie,
And you, proud Caroline,
Whenever you may chance to be,
I send this valentine.

Oh, Josephine and Genevieve,
To Ethel and Gertrude,
My message goes—may each believe
That I remember yet.

Oh, Josephine and Maude and Mae,
And those and Isabel,
I pray you be assured today
That still I wish you well.

Do you, dearie, and sweet Pauline,
Recall with pleasure how
I hugged you once behind a screen?
I send you greeting now.

You each and all have heard me swear
With fervor in my tone
That you were fairest of the fair
And meant to be my own.

To each of you, I want the right
To claim my valentine,
To guess which one I, if I might,
Would gladly choose as mine.

Waiting for the Explanation,
"That man doesn't seem to have any reasoning powers."
"I have always thought he was possessed of a pretty high grade of intelligence."

"No, you're all wrong about him. I talked to him for nearly two hours about religion and politics, last night, and when I got through he had exactly the same opinions he had when I started."

"Well?"
"I thought you were going to explain why he lacked reasoning powers."

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advices from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Dothan's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it. I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it. I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me."

Theodore's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.

To Dodge Lightning Strokes.
Every year many persons are killed by lightning because they did not know what to do in a thunderstorm. First of all, it is safer to be indoors than out. Most persons are killed when in the open. If you are caught in a thunderstorm don't be afraid of sheltering under a tree just because you have heard that it is dangerous. It is dangerous to shelter under a tall, dry tree, because lightning likes to strike the highest point as a rule for some distance round. But you are pretty safe if you take shelter in a wood. A tree in a wood is seldom struck. Certain trees are more dangerous than others. A far greater number of oak trees are struck than bush trees. Elm trees are nearly as dangerous as oak trees. Avoid the spruce and collections of animals for some reason—presumably the warmth that rises from their bodies—springs of animals and persons are liable to be struck by lightning.

His condition is due to a blow on the head with a club that he received when he was six years old. He is now nearly eighteen.

Assured that all he would have to pay would be $1 a day while the boy was in the University hospital, the father gave his consent to the operation.

Dothan, Ala. (Special Telegram)—A boy living in Poltava, practically was sentenced by Judge Holly to go to a hospital instead of a jail for a series of petty thefts.

REAL ESTATE

A PRIME INVESTMENT

FOR SALE:

There is no mistake in real estate investments in a growing town. Carnegie says: "All roads to wealth are closed to the man who except through increase of value of real estate." It can't burn nor deteriorate in value. Why leave your money in the bank at 4 per cent. when you know that increased value far exceeds it. Your influential men are property owners.

Here are few of the offerings we have:

A very large lot on corner of North and College Streets. At least five or six lots can be gotten out of this lot and vacant property is getting very scarce in this immediate neighborhood. Price, $1000, one-half cash.

Four room house and store on corner of Montana and Powell Streets for $700. Rented to good paying white rental at $9.50 a month. You can calculate this income very readily.

A four room house and large lot on East LaPayette Street for $900.

One and one-half room house and large lot on corner of Washington and East Streets for $2500.

Good five room house together with two vacant lots, 70 by 210 feet each, the house lot being same size, all for one thousand dollars, in good white neighborhood.

Five room house and very large lot on North Alice Street, between Adams and Burdshaw streets for $1000. Property is improving very fast in this neighborhood.

Four room house and nice lot on North Latta Street for $1200. Terms if desired. This property is near city High School and a big bargain.

A beautiful vacant lot near city High School very cheap and most attractive terms.

100 acre farm ten miles west of Dothan with 10 acres in cultivation and good two room house. Fine land and living well. Price $1200.

110 acres two and a half miles of Dothan. 45 acres open and 65 acres in timber, level land and in good community. $20.00 an acre. Terms if wanted.

MRS. BEIDEL TELLS WOMEN

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her in Health for 14 Years.

Shippensburg, Pa.—"It was several years ago that I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I then suffered terribly every month. My husband bought me a bottle of it and it helped me right away. Then after my second child was born I had a female trouble very badly and I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and in a short time was cured and have been in excellent health since. I always praise the Compound whenever I have an opportunity as I know it helped me and will help others. Lately I have given the Compound to my daughter and I wish all suffering women would take it and be convinced of its worth."

—Mrs. JAMES A. BEIDEL, 115 N. Penn Street, Shippensburg, Pa.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ailments known of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Mrs. Claude Dore (on the left), whose husband is conducting the prosecution against Rev. Jacob E. Price; Mrs. Lillian Miller, who fainted after giving her testimony at the church trial and (below) the accused pastor and Jane Est, E. W. W. leader who criticized all ministers at the trial.

New York, April 9.—Continuous sensations are being sprung inside and outside of the barred doors behind which Rev. Jacob E. Price, pastor of the fashionable Washington Heights Methodist church, is being tried on the charge of having been unduly familiar with several of the women members of his congregation. Mrs. Lillian Doherty, whose testimony was refused on the first day of the trial was permitted to appear as a witness for the prosecution, she said, after she had received a letter in which she was warned not to say anything damaging against Dr. Price. Mrs. Doherty broke down completely when telling how the minister had embraced her, when she went to see him at the parsonage. Mrs. Lillian Miller, who came all the way from Baltimore to appear against the minister, also broke down in testifying. Miss Jane Est, E. W. W. agitator, stood outside the trial room and expressed uncompromising opinions about all ministers.

of which C. C. Dalton is chairman, will meet with the Rural Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The meeting will be held in the offices of the Chamber of Commerce, North Foster Street.

The fourteen vice presidents, representing every beat in the county, are expected to be in attendance. The vice presidents were named at the farmers meeting held in the court house at Dothan last Saturday, at which time much interest in the diversified farming movement was aroused.

It is understood that the Chamber of Commerce of Dothan purposes to see to it that a cash market will be arranged so that all truck farm products may be sold here for cash at the same price paid in the larger cities.

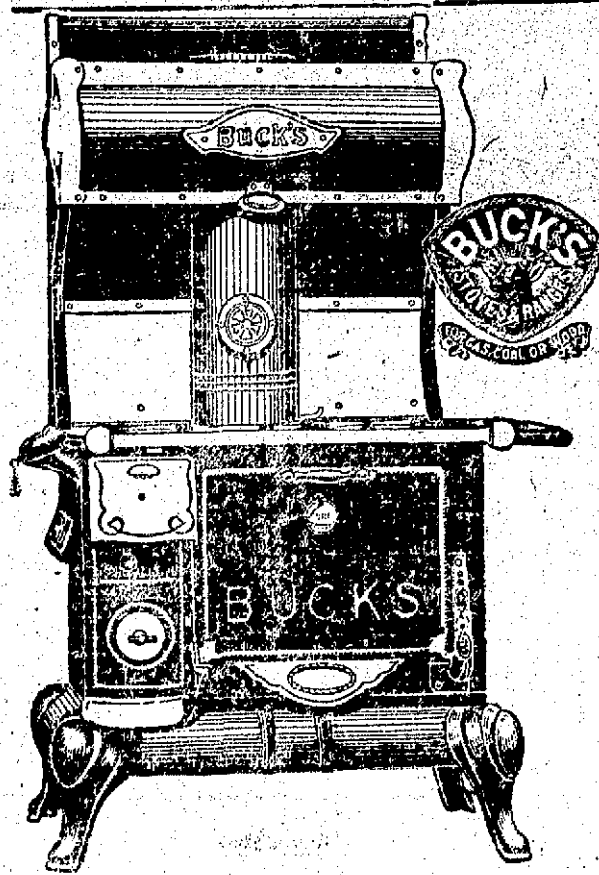

A movement will be inaugurated to have buyers here to purchase for the call looking towards the betterment of conditions for all.

Whenever You Need a General Tonic Take Grove's

The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is equally valuable as a General Tonic because it contains the well known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Drives out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.

CARD OF THANKS.

To my many friends in Houston county, I take this method of thanking each and every one of you for your loyal support in Monday's primary. It has always been my contention that no man could win any race for any office without the help of his friends, and if there was ever a crowd that stood by me it was my friends on election day.

As to my plurality over Mr. Butler, Mr. Nichols and Mr. Kornegay, the same is more pleasing to me as each of these men are among the best in the county.

It shall be my earnest effort to serve every man alike, insofar as my official duties are concerned, and as I have said before there will be no special favors shown.

Yours sincerely,
JOHN A. MAY.

LOOKING FORWARD TO THE WEDDING DAY

All over this broad and happy land thousands of young women are looking forward to that day of all days in a woman's life, the wedding day, remarks liebe in the Baltimore American.

To each one of them I would say just a few words, whether she expects to be an early spring bride or one who will take the all-important step in June the month of roses.

In this connection I wish to tell a little story about a woman I know who was very fond of flowers and house plants. Of the latter she had a fine collection. Once in a while this woman would give a little party and invite all her friends to see her. As the time grew near, she was full of the desire to have her growing plants in first class condition. To this end she would turn them out of their pots, put in fresh soil and cleanse them, the extra rest, dirt or put them in larger pots, scrub and cleanse them, prune to all the minor details, then away all unfit leaves and make everything spick and span.

A very good way of doing, as all will agree, but the trouble was that on many of these occasions she was so busy that she left this work breathless.

Quite late and the plants did not have time to get over it by the day of the wedding. It has become a proverb that the girl with freshly washed hair cannot do a thing with it. How unwise then to expect to achieve a stately beautiful and dependable coiffure on which to rest the bridal veil if the hair is too fluffy and slippery from a recent and extra thorough cleansing.

The night after the shampoo plant the hair loosely on going to bed. The next day press it rather loosely. If the hair is shampooed two or three days before the date set for the wedding it will not be too soft nor the scalp too sensitive when the time arrives for it to be curled and combed, manipulated, twisted and securely affixed in the proud and as pretty-as-possible arrangement which is to frame the rosy happy face.

Don't expect the facial massage to rub out all traces of fatigue in an hour, the day of the wedding. Nothing more restful after a tiresome day of shopping than a good face massage. Don't chatter and talk all the time you are being treated, just close the eyes, relax every muscle and lie quietly in an easy chair during the treatment, and if the treatment is well given you will feel rested and at peace with all the world when it is finished. Take a treatment once a week for at least four weeks before the great event and you will surely feel repaid for cost and time.

What is true of the care of the hair, is equally true of the hands and nails, the teeth as well as the digestion and general health should be cared for in plenty of time before the celebration of the great event.

I have known girls who were so zealous in the manicuring of the finger nails at such times that their hands were quite sore and uncomfortable in their wedding gloves. I have known other girls who so thoroughly belabored their faces with creams and massage that on their wedding day the skin was quite rough and unattractive.

To leave it go, till the very last to pay the necessary visit to the dentist the last week of her single life is unwise, for no visit to the dentist can be a tonic to health and spirits. And the bride that is to be is quite nervous enough in the ordinary course of events without adding to it by engagements with the dentist the week of her single blessedness.

More important than all of these is the rest which the bride must surely take if she would look her best on the happy day when she is to be joined to the man of her choice. She may declare "I cannot sleep," she may be forgiven a natural wide-awake condition which almost precludes the possibility of a cozy nap. But at least she can shut herself away from busy talk and in her room have the quiet and seclusion which will benefit her. There she may dream, if she wishes, bright day dreams, but at least she will gather strength and calmness for the occasion that awaits her.

An old English book of Dreams and Signs says:
"If a woman leaves her bed to look at the morning star, she is in love; so if she plait chaplets of flowers and put them aside till they fade; so if she picks up shells and throws them back into the sea, she is in love, although she herself doth not know it."

So the bride anxious to look her best at her bridal may do all of these things and more so dreamy and absent minded may be her state, but if she is wise, she will not omit the precaution of all tasks and effort, so that she will look radiant and rosy to all of the friends who have assembled to do her honor.

We will fix your old furniture if broken. Phone us. We will do the rest. Caretop Bash & Door Co. 8-11

IMPORTANT TO ALL WOMEN READERS OF THIS PAPER

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, bearing-down feelings, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

A good kidney medicine, possessing real healing and curative value should be a blessing to thousands of nervous, over-worked women.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy will do for them. Every reader of this paper, who has not already tried it, by enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., may receive sample size bottle by parcel post. You can purchase the regular fifty cent and one dollar size bottles at all drug stores.
